

Auslan Tour

Inner Mysteries of Melbourne

Are YOU ready ...

Did you know that living in Melbourne isn't all about dressing in black? In fact, when you walk down the streets of Melbourne, you will see a range of people as diverse as the city itself. The 'Inner Mysteries of Melbourne' Auslan Tour is for locals, interstate visitors and overseas travelers who want to get away from conformity and boring stereotypes and see Melbourne with two locals with their fingers well and truly on the pulse!.

Those of you who are familiar with Melbourne will know that there are more hidden treasures than a lucky dip. You will see some of the most interesting and unique places in the city centre. Even if you know some of them, we hope we will give you some new places to discover – or re-discover – in Melbourne!

- Ready set go - Federation Square and Melbourne Central/QV
- Underground shops with trendy wear... cutting edge art
- Hit the streets – lanes, arcades and our famous hook turns!
- Art & graffiti
- Feeling peckish – Chocolate, coffee, lattes and THE places to eat (regardless of income)
- Funky Melbourne fashion by Australian designers
- Enter a world of boutiques, trams and everything in between
- Thirsty? You get a complimentary cocktail at a fabulous bar

Cost: $30 per person

Guides: Natalie Sandon & Medina Sumovic

When: Friday 21 August

Time: 2pm – 5pm

Access: Auslan only (IS available if requested)

Numbers limited, first in best dressed, literally!

ASLIA NATIONAL CONFERENCE 2009

Depends on the context: Unpacking the interpreter